Mityellan 3rd Armored Veterans

-Survivors of the Mityellan 3rd Armored Division, honorably discharged after a long, harrowing campaign on the moon Eventide. Now a company Mercenary Company of some 60 highly skilled troops, who we might be able to recruit, should we earn their trust and goodwill.

-Have a score to settle with Inquisitor Roke; their final conflict on Eventide involved large casualties when facing the forces of Roke, who they believe was trying to hide something on the moon. Specifically, they suspect that he was trying to claim and hide Xenotechnology. It was after this conflict that they were discharged, apparently due to the politics and secrecy behind the encounter.

-I have located more detailed reports of the Eventide Campaign, which can be accessed here.

- Captain Arshom Sviridov
- Edmund Routhe

Captain Arshom Sviridov

-Contacted Major Verity for assistance in locating an individual connected to Inquisitor Roke, with whom the Mityellan 3rd has a score to settle. A picture seems to indicate this individual is Interrogator Montalban, though Captain Sviridov referred to him as Inquisitor Gideon. This adds credence to the theory that Montalban and Gideon are one in the same, but also indicates that he may be masquerading as a lower level agent than his true rank.

-Appears to have several contacts on Asterion, some of who directed them to us in their search someone who might have knowledge of/contact with the local Inquisition.

-The Major is fairly confident that Sviridov is not hiding ulterior motives; his and the Mityellan's only aim is to find and kill Inquisitor Roke, and anyone else responsible for the losses they took on Eventide.

Edmund Routhe

-Former member of the Comissariat