

Magos Helexicon Theta-9

-Magos from Eskutchax, accompanied by apprentice Engineer Anealia Theta-9. Had contact with Sojourner Wakes; was apparently similarly minded in being less orthodox in beliefs, hence leaving the Forge World to come to Asterion to seek a more open-minded setting for research and theory craft.

-Specialist in Machine Spirits; claims to be studying methods of machine spirit resurrection. He and the Engineer have since provided us with a more detailed demonstration of this process.

-Had intended to reach out to Voss Alpha-1 and House Nimea for possible resources and support; to avoid them becoming assets to a different faction, they were offered (and accepted) space for a laboratory in Bluehull-92.

-Currently overseeing the resurrection of the Norimar Corpse Starch Manufactory with Engineer Theta-9
